Gregg LeRock FAQs

Who is Gregg LeRock?

A two-time JUNO nominee and graduate of uOttawa's distinguished Lettres Françaises faculty, Gregg LeRock has combined his three loves — teaching French, writing songs and performing for kids — into a single vocation. In addition to releasing five best-selling CDs and performing for over half a million students across the country, Gregg has penned dozens of hit songs for Canada's top educational publishers.

How much are tickets?

$12 + HST, or $10 + HST if booked before the Early Bird deadline.

Do we need to pay a deposit?

No deposit is required. Payment in full is due 2 weeks before the concert.

How do we pay?

We can accept payment either by ETF (e-transfer) or cheque. We do not accept credit cards.

How long are Gregg's concerts?

Concerts are approximately 55 minutes in length.

Who gets the most out of a Gregg LeRock concert?

Gregg's audiences are a mix of Core French (Gr. 1-8), Extended French and French Immersion (Gr. 1-6) students – and teachers and parents love the show just as much as the students!

What kind of music does Gregg play?

Pop, dance, folk, blues and rock, guaranteed to get every kid singing and rocking ... en français! Hear samples at www.gregglerock.ca/video.html

How do we prepare our students for Gregg's interactive show?

All of your teachers receive complimentary song videos, with lyrics embedded, to help students learn the lyrics and to build their excitement. Many schools play Gregg's songs as part of morning announcements in the months leading up to the show, design posters or t-shirts based on song lyrics, or shoot music videos that incorporate Gregg's music and themes.

Does Gregg do individual school concerts?

No, Gregg performs only multi-school concerts in professional theatres and auditoriums.

What is the refund policy?

Schools are responsible for payment for all seats they have confirmed in their booking contract. All bookings are final, no exceptions. Sorry, no refunds.

What if there's a snow emergency the day of the concert?

If your school buses are cancelled because of inclement weather, we will gladly reschedule the concert for a mutually convenient date.
